Cookery Competition Semi-Finals: Students from schools in Almancil, Quarteira, Algoz and Armazão de Pêra have prepared their menus for the cookery competition supported by IRC Almancil and RC Silves. The judges have experienced some inspiring and interesting meals from the four schools. The schools were so close in their marks that it was down to the chair of Judges in the end to decide who would go forward to the final. The two schools going forward to the final in the Conrad Hotel kitchen on the 9 March are Almancil and Quarteira. They will cook from a black box of ingredients and the best menu on the day will decide the winner. The prizes will be awarded at a celebration dinner in the Conrad Hotel on the 16 March.
